

South Korea President's Daughter Firmly Supports “Explicit Legislation Banning Dog Meat Consumption”

On 6th Mar, 2018, President Moon Jae-in's daughter brought Tory, “The First Dog”, back to Coexistence of Animal Rights on Earth (CARE), and firmly indicated support on promoting “explicit legislation banning dog meat consumption in South Korea” to CARE's founder Park So-youn.

President Moon adopted Tory, a stray dog, from CARE.

The woman in white being Ms. Moon Da -hye.

Although part of the Korean public still eats dog meat, mainstream media reported positive coverage on Tory, “The First Dog”. Moon Da-hye’s support has enlightened the hope of light of “explicit legislation banning dog meat consumption”!

World Dog Alliance (WDA) and Coexistence of Animal Rights on Earth (CARE) are allied to promote “explicit legislation banning dog meat consumption”, with Tory, “The First Dog”, as the face of the “I’m not Food” campaign.
